

What Is An Expatriate Package?

ExpatsSingapore

Expatriate packages are a collection of benefits and services provided to employees who are working in a foreign country. These packages are designed to help expatriates adjust to their new environment and maintain their quality of life. The specific components of an expatriate package can vary significantly between companies and industries, but they typically include the following elements: